

| Product description                          |   | Physical chemical analysis                            |   |
|--|---|---|---|
| Appearance                                   | Small pine seeds, whole healthy, well developed, no signs of growth, no spots and discoloration | Moisture %  | max 3,0 %                                   |
| Colour                                       | Light gold, beige, beige yellow, partly brown   | Presence of non-organic impurities (including stones) | Absent                                      |
| Taste and smell                              | Typical without foreign smell and taste   | Insects or their remains                              | Absent                                      |
| Consistency                                  | Hard, crunchy   | Preservative  | Absent                                      |
| Appearance                                   | Loose, homogenous powder, small lumps easily scattering after pushing are acceptable            | Allergenic ingredients in raw material                | The raw material is not an allergen         |
| Others specs                                 |   | Heavy metals• Pb• Cd                          | In accordance with the current legal status |
|  |   | Yeast and mould                                       | In accordance with the current legal status |
|  |   | Mycotoxins  | In accordance with the current legal status |
|  |   |   |   |
| Purpose of the raw material/ target consumer | Intended for direct consumption, except for allergic persons                                    |   |   |
| GMO  | The raw material is produced without using genetically modified ingredients                     |   |   |
| Irradiation                                  | Not subjected to irradiation  |   |   |
| Storage                                      | Store at dry and cool place   |   |   |

Our certificates

